Subject: Introduction of new syllabi for Middle Standard Examination from the academic session 2009-10 - instructions thereon.

Dear Sir/Madam,

The H.P Board of School Education has introduced new syllabi for Middle Standard Examination from the academic session 2009-10 under National Curriculum Framework-2005.

With the introduction of new syllabi for the said class, the category of candidates who have already appeared in December, 2008 (winter closing schools) and March, 2009 (Summer closing Schools) and were placed under compartment have been given two changes to clear their compartmental examination in September, 2009 and December, 2009(winter closing Schools) and September, 2009 and March, 2010 (Summer closing Schools). In the event of their not clearing the examination in December, 2009(winter closing schools) and March, 2010 (Summer closing Schools), such candidates shall appear in any subsequent annual examination of the Board as regular candidates or in the capacity of private candidate(s), if otherwise eligible, under the syllabi and courses of study that would be applicable at the time of their taking the examination.

The candidates who have been declared fail in Middle Standard Examination in December, 2008(winter closing schools) and March, 2009 (Summer closing Schools) under old syllabus shall appear in December, 2009(winter closing schools) and March, 2010 in (Summer closing Schools) as private candidate(s) as their last chance and they shall only be declared Fail or Pass. No compartment chance shall be given to them and they shall appear in any subsequent annual examination of the Board as regular or in the capacity of private candidate(s), if otherwise eligible, under the syllabi and courses of study that would be applicable at the time of their taking the examination.

The new syllabi containing Regulations, Scheme of Studies, Scheme of examinations and Courses of Study for Middle Standard Examination is available in the Sale Book Depots of the Board on a cash payment of Rs.15/-. All Heads of the institutions are, therefore, advised to procure a copy of the Syllabus in order to ensure proper regulation of admissions, recurrence of avoidable Court Cases against the Board or the Institution concerned and smooth teaching of course content.

Yours faithfully,
SECRETARY
